Operational Information:

- CIG OSINT observed a Facebook video of [Personal Info.]. In this video, [Perso] showed a kitchen set up on the Sir John A. Macdonald Parkway. There are multiple barbecues and an extensive supply of food and toiletries.
- CIG OSINT identified a Facebook post from [Personal Info.] which states that they can now receive donations to their new email address: leestevendumont[at]gmail.com.
- CIG OSINT identified a Twitter post indicating that members of the convoy protest in downtown Ottawa are now driving around Orleans (eastern Ottawa), honking horns and impeding traffic.
- Greater Sudbury Police Service, through Project HENDON, advises the Sudbury convoy to Ottawa departed which includes 7 passenger vehicles and approximately 20 individuals.
- OPS advise that there is a protest at 474 Elgin. Less than 25 people are present, all cooperative.
- CIG OSINT observed an article which states that the Go Fund Me account has now been cancelled.
- Gatineau Police advise FARFADAA received a supply of wood.
- CIG OSINT identified a Twitter post which shows that protester as setting up multiple bouncy castles at the intersection of Bank and Wellington.
- CIG OSINT located a public Facebook group “Freedom Convoy Quebec 4 Ottawa”. A video posted to this group earlier today suggested that unionized construction workers anticipate joining the movement in Ottawa on Saturday. They plan to go to Parliament Hill wearing construction helmets. Some of the construction workers claim that their unions have not been supporting them.
- CIG OSINT observed a Facebook event called “Convoie Ottawa #2 – Freedom convoy 2022”. The convoy is expected to leave from Formula Shield at 1203 route 122 in Victoriaville/Drummondville, QC. The event is scheduled for 2022-02-05 at 0400hrs until 0300hrs on 2022-02-06. As of 1555hrs, 23 people responded.
- CBSA advise the Slow-Roll protest continues to be seen throughout the country in support of the convoy. Additional protests are expected across the country over the weekend as there are protests and counter-protests planned for Provincial capitals.

Operational Planning:

- Nil updates at this time.

Protective Clients and Protective Sites:
